

Three friends

Once upon a time, there lived a pin, a leaf and the soil. They were wonderful friends and were living happily together. One evening all of them sat around the fireplace and tried to cook a nice soap. At that moment began to rain and the water drifted off the roof with noisy noise: tik, tak, tik, tak..

-“I will stay to make a soap. But one of you must go to the roof and try to close the hole from which the rain water drips”, said the pin, but no one listened to him.

The pin went to the roof and started to close the hole but she missed her balance, fell down and broke.

After one hour the leaf went to check if the pin was ok. But as it arrived on the roof, a strong wind blew and took it away.

Later the soil went to check for his friends. But when he arrived at the roof, he began to melt because of the rain.
